

DESCRIPTION

In Ghana, elaborate combs were gifts from Akan men to women to commemorate special events, such as puberty celebrations, weddings, or births. As a gift from a husband to his wife the comb underscores the couple's desire to have children.

DETAILS

- Culture: Akan People
- Geography: Ghana
- Circa: 19th-20th Century
- Size: 7"W x 18.5"H x 2.5"D
- Weight: Approximately 1LB
- Materials: Wood, Beads, Mirror

LIST PRICING

- XTT0014.....00003